

EMPLOYMENT OPPORTUNITY FAITH FORMATION DIRECTOR

St. Charles Borromeo, St. John the Baptist, and St. Mary's churches are seeking a self-motivated, well organized person to lead faith formation for children, and co-ordinate faith formation for adults. Qualifications include being a practicing Roman Catholic who upholds the teachings of the Church, and participates in its sacramental life. A person who has a pastoral sense and a willingness to collaborate with others.

The successful candidate will provide training and spiritual renewal for the catechists and will be responsible for curriculum and implementation of religious formation for children in the three churches. This person will also supervise any adult faith formation programs, and will oversee the position of Youth Ministry Co-Ordinator. The Faith Formation Director works as a resource person providing liaison between the Pastor, catechists, and other individuals and groups as needed.

The Faith Formation position is a full time position. Depending on their qualifications the person offered employment will be required to fulfill the Diocesan Certification Program and or have a degree in religious studies.

If you are interested in this position please contact Fr. Ed Sheehan at St. John's, 725-8756, Fr. Richard Rice, 443-3423, Fr. Stephen Concannon or Deacon Frank Semancik at 725-2624. Send any resumes to St. Charles Borromeo at 132 Mc Keen St. Brunswick, Maine, 04011.
